

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF NORTH CAROLINA
C.A. No.: 1:21-cv-961

NATORIA PETTYJOHN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

STERIS CORPORATION GROUP DISABILITY PLAN,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

Preliminary Statement

Plaintiff brings this action under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA) 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B) to seek entitlement and payment of short term disability benefits under a self-funded benefit plan issued by Steris Corporation.

Parties

1. Plaintiff is a citizen and resident of Durham, North Carolina which is in Durham County.

2. Defendant is a self-funded benefit plan organized and existing pursuant to 29 U.S.C.S. § 1132. Upon information and belief, Defendant is an employee benefit plan providing benefits for the employees of Steris Corporation.

Jurisdiction and Venue

3. In this matter, Plaintiff seeks short term disability benefits under an ERISA plan pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B). This Court has jurisdiction to hear this matter based upon a federal question. Defendant is subject to jurisdiction in this court because it has more than minimum contacts with this forum (see 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e)).

4. Venue in the Middle District of North Carolina is appropriate by virtue of Plaintiff's residence and Defendants' presence and doing business in this District.

Factual Allegations

5. Plaintiff was employed with Steris Corporation. As an employee of Steris Corporation Plaintiff was provided short term disability coverage via the Defendant self-funded benefit plan.

6. Plaintiff was forced to cease working on June 2, 2021, and she filed a claim for short term disability benefits.

7. Defendant, by and through its claims administrator, Lincoln Life Assurance Company of Boston, denied Plaintiff's claim asserting that she was not disabled pursuant to the terms of the plan.

8. Plaintiff appealed the denial and fully exhausted administrative remedies, but Defendant has failed and refused to provide her the benefits she seeks.

For a First Cause of Action For Benefits Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B)

9. Plaintiff incorporates all prior allegations, where not inconsistent, as if fully set forth herein.

10. Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court consider the administrative record compiled in this case and any other evidence relevant to any factors discussed by Champion v. Black & Decker, 550 F.3d 353 (4th Cir. 2008), if applicable and depending on the standard of review, and declare, pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §1132(a)(1)(B), that Plaintiff is entitled to the short term disability benefits which she seeks under the terms of the plan. In the event that the court reviews the record and/or other relevant information and determines that the Defendants abused their discretion or that their decisions were not supported by the record, but that the substance of the record might not support Plaintiff's entitlement to benefits then Plaintiff respectfully asks that, in the event of such a finding, that the court exercise its inherent power to remand Plaintiff's claims for a "full and fair" review by the appropriate claim fiduciary Defendant. Should the court award Plaintiff any part of the relief requested, Plaintiff additionally prays that the Court award her attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §1132(g).

WHEREFORE, having fully stated her complaint against the Defendant, Plaintiff prays for:

1. A declaration of entitlement to the short term disability benefits she seeks pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §1132(a)(1)(B);
3. Attorney's fees and costs pursuant to 29 U.S.C. §1132(g); and
4. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper, including pre-judgment interest on all benefits due from the point at which benefits were payable through the time of judgment.
